

Saturday, November 8, 2014
Uniwersytet Wrocławski
Instytut Historii Sztuki
ul. Szewska 36, room 208

Colloquium and Workshop: Debating Heritage – National Connotations of Historical Matter

Program

9.30–9.45	Prof. dr. Zabłocka-Kos Address of Welcome
09.45–10.00	Karolina Jara & Sarah M. Schlachetzki Introductory Note
10.00–10.40	Magdalena Markowska (University of Wrocław) Town Halls in Silesia in the Nineteenth Century
	Makary Górczyński (University of Warsaw) Unwelcome Spaces: Political Dimensions of Urban Growth in the Polish Kingdom at the Turn of the 20th Century – A Case Study: Kalisz
10.40–11.00	Discussion
11.00–11.30	Coffee break
11.30–12.10	Ewelina Wanat (Chemnitz University of Technology) Politics of Cultural Identity on the Polish-Czech-German border area after 1945
	Katharina Friedla (The International Institute for Holocaust Research Yad Vashem) Postwar: Encounters of Polish and German Jews in Wrocław
12.10–12.30	Discussion
12.30–14.00	Lunch break
14.00–15.00	Aleksandra Paradowska (University of Wrocław) Aspects of Research on Nazi Architecture in the Example of Reichsgau Wartheland
	Richard Nemec (University of Bern) Hitler's „Generalsiedlungsplan Ost“: A Case only for Poland? National-Socialist Spatial and Town Planning Between Reality and Utopia Małgorzata Popiołek (Technical University of Berlin) „Nothing is Sacred!” Dealing with Polish History in Germany: Case Study Warsaw
15.00–15.30	Discussion
15.30–16.00	Coffee Break
16.00–...	Workshop [for the speakers]

organized by Sarah M. Schlachetzki, University of Bern and Karolina Jara, University of Wrocław